TALKING TO PEOPLE
Inquiry-based and Cooperative Methodology

Organised by English Matters in TRINITY COLLEGE DUBLIN,
Dublin, Ireland, from 08/07/2019 to 19/07/2019

Professional Development: The participant has followed an Inquiry-based approach through practical ideas for lesson planning and delivery, materials development, and assessment. Based on this framework, the participant has engaged in field projects by following the English Matters' Contexts4Content methodology to explore Irish culture and society as reference contexts for producing teaching resources, while developing communicative competence in English. The participant has also engaged in lectures, group discussions and workshops about Irish literature, music, and film; has accomplished reflective professional journal writing; has participated in networking activities; and has discussed about Dissemination Strategies and the European Dimension in Education.

This Continuous Professional Development (CPD) Course has been organised in the framework of the European ERASMUS+ Programme, Action KA1.
